

Klove has been an important part of my families life. It offers a tremendous message to my family. It would create a big gap in our radio listening to lose Klove. I believe it is a tremendous message of hope to all who listen that would be lost if it were cancelled.